Pro Performance therapy works in partnership with coaches and families to provide state of the art therapy to athletes. We work with individuals or groups to develop sport-specific rehabilitation programs for weekend warriors, high school, collegiate, amateur, and professional athletes. Pro Performance Therapy will get you back to your sport if you're injured, or help you to enhance performance, and prevent injury.

Barrett Baseball is an indoor training facility designed to make you a better baseball player and athlete. Offering team practices and private sessions, Barrett Baseball is operated by current and former professional baseball players. Become the complete player while working on all aspects of your game including your baseball skills, weight training, speed and agility.
